CHINA INTERNATIONAL FAIR FOR TRADE IN SERVICES 2020

Invitation

September 1, 2020

Dear Mr./Ms.

The 2020 China International Fair for Trade in Services (CIFTIS), co-hosted by the Ministry of Commerce of PRC and the People's Government of Beijing Municipality, will be held in Beijing during September 4-9.

As the first comprehensive global fair for trade in services and an important window for the opening-up of China's service industry, CIFTIS, along with China Import and Export Fair (Canton Fair) and China International Import Expo (CIIE), has become one of the three major exhibition platforms which jointly constitute an all-round opening-up and cooperation promotion system in the new era where manufacturing industry and service industry are developing comprehensively and import and export are jointly displayed. Till now, 17158 enterprises have registered and will participate into related exhibitions and activities, including 33 international organizations, 74 foreign embassies in China, 110 overseas chambers and institutions as well as 1796 overseas enterprises and domestic foreign-funded enterprises, covering all the 30 top trade in services countries and areas.

In view of the COVID-19 epidemic, the 2020 CIFTIS will involve both online and offline activities with the theme of "Global Services, Shared Prosperity". 7 kinds of activities will be held including Global Trade in Services Summit, summit forums, industrial conferences and professional forums, business talks and side events, exhibition and display, achievements release and supporting activities. On the night of September 4, 2020 CIFTIS "Global Trade in Services Summit" will be held both online and offline. Chinese state leader, foreign dignitaries, heads of international organizations will make speeches. Foreign ministerial-level guests, diplomatic envoys in Beijing, representatives from international organizations in China, representatives from Fortune Global 500, leading enterprises in related industries and institutions will attend the summit.

You enjoy considerable reputation with significant influence in the industry. The organizing committee sincerely invites you to attend the 2020 CIFTIS "Global Trade in Services Summit" online at 20:00 on September 4 (Beijing time).

We look forward to your attendance!
